

Thomas Laird

December 1-3, 2006

READ Global is proud to host Thomas Laird, author of the newly released Story of Tibet; Conversations with the Dalai Lama, at three local Reno-Tahoe events this December. In his book, Tom weaves historical research and personal interviews with the Dalai Lama into a thought-provoking look at this turbulent country.

Join us as Tom shares his experiences, stories and thoughts on Tibet and the Dalai Lama!

December 1, 2006

Tibetan History - What it means to the Dalai Lama, and why it matters to us.

Resort at Squaw Creek in the Alpine Room

6:30-7:00PM No host bar

Program begins at 7:00PM

Free admission

December 2, 2006

Informal Discussion - The Dalai Lama's vision of Buddhism

Hosted by Gail Robinson

3660 Hemlock Way, Reno, NV 89509

Please call 775-322-1004 for directions or questions

Program begins at 2:00 PM

$5-$10 suggested donation

December 3, 2006

Tibetan Art – How it influenced the Dalai Lama and its reflection of Tibetan history

Nevada Museum of Art in the Prim Theatre

Program begins at 2:00PM

$20 admission at the door

Amazon editors picked Story of Tibet as one of the ten best religion and spirituality books of 2006.

Barnes and Nobles recommends Story of Tibet as one of its Holiday Gift books.

